Section 2305.321 of the Ohio Revised Code (the "Statute") identifies certain risks that are inherent in an "equine activity", and specifies that an equine participant assumes those inherent risks.

Under the Statute, an "inherent risk of an equine activity" includes, but is not limited to: (a) the propensity of an equine to behave in ways that may result in injury, death, or loss to persons on or around the equine; (b) the unpredictability of an equine's reaction to sounds, sudden movement, unfamiliar objects, persons or other animals; (c) hazards, including, but not limited to, surface or subsurface conditions; (d) a collision with another equine, another animal, a person, or an object; and (e) the potential of an equine activity participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury, death, or loss to the person of the participant to other persons, including, but not limited to, failing to maintain control over an equine or failing to act within the ability of the participant.

Pursuant to the Statute, and in consideration of the permission of Chagrin Valley Farms to permit the undersigned [or the undersigned's child/ward/invitee/guest] to enter upon the Chagrin Valley Farms premises and/or to participate in or observe equine activities at any Chagrin Valley Farms facility or event, the undersigned, for and on behalf of myself, my heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, guests, invitees and assigns (collectively, the "Releasing Parties"), waive and release, and shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless, Chagrin Valley Farms, its owners, employees, agents, representatives, invitees, successors and assigns, as well as any equine professional [as defined in the Statute] and veterinarian at Chagrin Valley Farms (collectively, the "Released Parties"), from any and all claims, demands, actions, causes of action, liability, damages, injuries, losses [whether to person or property] that the Releasing Parties now have or hereafter may have against any one or more of all of the Released Parties arising from, or in connection with, any equine activity at any Chagrin Valley Farms facility, or under the sponsorship of Chagrin Valley Farms.

The undersigned authorizes any Released Party to render first aid treatment to any Releasing Party while at any Chagrin Valley Farms facility.
